Torch of Wisdom Foundation to Host 6th Annual Honoring Local Heroes Event Recognizes Recipients for Their Contributions To Bettering Society

Southfield, Mich. -- The Torch of Wisdom Foundation (TOWF) will host its 6th Annual "Honoring Local Heroes: Changing Tomorrow Today," awards banquet on Friday, November 18, 2016 from 7-10 pm at the Great Lakes Culinary Center located 24101 W. Nine Mile Rd in Southfield, Mich. The "Black No-Tie" affair will honor several awardees for their contributions to improving communities on the local, state and national level. This year the TOWF will recognize the following:

- Trailblazer
Congresswoman Brenda Lawrence
U.S. House of Representatives (D-MI 14th District)
- Cultural Arts
Drake Phifer
Multimedia Entrepreneur, Event Producer, Community Advocate
Urban Organic
- Community Enrichment
Rev. Eric Burr
Pastor
Second New Hope
- Scholarship
Hugh Mahler
Founding Partner
Starting With One Scholarship

Sonia Jackson-Myles
Founder & Author
The Sister Accord

Congresswoman Lawrence will be recognized for her successful work as a member of the U.S. House of Representatives. Phifer is being honored for his exemplary community and cultural advocacy and his profound impact on the Metro Detroit music and art scene. Burr is being recognized for his work providing housing to single women and children and social services to communities in need. Myles seeks to empower women all over the world to love and lift each other up. Mahler is a tireless volunteer who is very passionate about education and works to provide opportunities and scholarships for less fortunate young men.

Comerica Bank, DeCarolis Dental and Public Service Credit Union are serving as premier sponsors for this year's event. Tickets for the event are $60 per person. The 6th Annual Honoring Local Heroes is chaired by Beverly Cousin, Debra DeBose and Rosemary Williams. Yolanda Durfield is board chair and president of the Torch of Wisdom Foundation.

6th Annual Honoring Local Heroes

The TOWF was established in 1993. It provides grants to support scholastic achievement and community service programs. The focus of TOWF is to raise funds for scholarship (academic achievement); programs that heighten awareness of the arts and expose the talents and works of local and nationally known artists; and for initiatives that strengthen and enrich our communities. Honoring Local Heroes is one of the TOWF's signature events. Tickets can be purchased at www.towfinc.org or by calling (248)-327-6815.
